

THE WEATHER
by EP aged 6yrs

Sometimes rainy,
We don't care,
We'll splash in puddles everywhere

When it's sunny,
We'll go outside,
Then we'll jump in the pool
And open our mouths wide

When it is Autumn,
We jump in leaves
In the cool breeze

When it snows,
We'll have some fun,
Even when the sun isn't out,
We will still be happy anywhere

When a stroke of lightening hits the beach,
We'll run away and grab the bleach,
We shall shut our doors,
And lock up tight,
So we can sleep tonight

The outbreak of hurricanes,
Is really quite a terror,
It wrecks some places,
Here and there,
And it shakes our lovely hair.
